

Linda Gross Fowler, of Bedford is pleased to announce the release of her second CD, entitled "I Left My Heart on the Crooked Road" a Collection of 12 original titles she has written from personal experiences, many of them taken from Virginia's Heritage Music Trail, known as the "Crooked Road" which runs through southwest Virginia.

She will be on hand at her family's upcoming annual Apple Harvest Festival in Apple Valley on Saturday, October 15th to sign copies of the CD and may perform during the day- long event. Her style is country with a Bluegrass sound and several gospel numbers feature harmony by Dobbie Toms of Faithridge who plays a variety of Bluegrass instruments on the CD and who will also be on hand to entertain on the 15th. Come out and join the Gross family as we continue the hospitality of this community oriented day. Free admission and Free parking.